- General Camp Rules

1. Campers are under the authority of the camp staff during their stay at camp.

2. Campers are not permitted to leave the camp unless a written request by a parent/legal guardian is presented at registration and/or approved by the DYD, Matt Hoag.
3. Campers must stay in their cabins after "Lights Out." Any camper caught outside after this time without a proper reason will be sent home.
4. Housing will be assigned by gender at birth.
5. Use and possession of tobacco, drugs, alcohol, or other illegal contents are strictly forbidden.
6. No profanity, disrespectful or crude conversation is to be used.
7. Keep your cabin clean. Room checks will be done during morning Chapel services.
8. Respect other camper's belongings.
9. Do not damage or deface any camp property. If something is broken, report it immediately. Unnecessary damage will be charged to the person(s) responsible and their parents/guardians. If the guilty person(s) cannot be found, the cost of the repair will be shared by each camper and their parent/guardian in the cabin.
10. Check Out at the end of the week instructions. Each camper will be free to go home AFTER their cabin has been cleaned and approved by the Camp Leadership.
11. The daily schedule will be observed by everyone, and attendance at all camp activities is required.
12. Campers are prohibited from driving to/from campgrounds in personal vehicles.
13. Campers are expected to observe habits of personal and group courtesy, cleanliness, and Christian conduct.
14. Guys and girls are not allowed in each other's cabins or around the cabin area.
15. All staff and personnel are authorized to maintain order anywhere on the campgrounds.
16. No hand-held video games, laptops, firearms, or knives are allowed.

17. We reserve the right to inspect the contents of all personal belongings. The holding and/or disposal of improper contents is the right of the camp staff.
  18. Neither South Carolina Youth Ministries nor River Oaks will be held responsible for items left at camp. Lost items must be claimed within 48 hours by emailing matt.hoag@ag4sc.com. Items may be mailed back to you at YOUR expense.
  19. Neither campers nor volunteers are permitted to bring coolers or any other containers of food or beverage items. Refillable sports bottles are strongly recommended for outdoor activities.
  20. NOTE: Serious offenses, such as banned substances (drugs, alcohol, firearms, fireworks), will be met with immediate dismissal from camp, as well as notification of local authorities as required by law. Further, the lack of cooperation, unnecessary roughness, lack of respect for property, or an unwholesome attitude on the part of any individual will result in expulsion from the camp. NO REFUNDS WILL BE ISSUED. PARENTS are asked to review these rules with their child and encourage compliance while at camp. PARENTS SHOULD INSPECT LUGGAGE BEFORE THE CAMPER DEPARTS.
- Campers should understand that violations of camp rules may result in disciplinary action, the contact of their parent/legal guardian with the possibility of being sent home and forfeiting their camp fee.
